Our Communion With God • 11:00 am service

Silent Confession

General Confession: God, I've often neglected the feeding and care of my brain. I've let it drift and be exposed to all kinds of negative influences, while offering it little positive support, then wondered why I'm so weak. Forgive me. Help me to become far more intentional about the training and conditioning of my brain. Amen.

Consecration of the Elements

Proclamation of our Faith: Christ has died, Christ has risen, Christ is here now, and Christ will come again. Alleluia!

Distribution of the Elements

If this is your first time with us: You are welcome to receive Holy Communion. You're also welcome to just observe, if you prefer. You can take Communion alone, or with friends or family.

Ushers will release rows and direct you to a server. The server will offer you the wafer dipped in juice with a prayer. After receiving the elements, return to your seat by the side aisle. If you would like to receive Communion but are unable to come forward, please notify an usher.

Grief Workshop

Begins Monday through March 2 at 7 PM
Facilitated by: Jan Wilburn Walker (Rm6)

Grief is complex. It encompasses a wide range of emotions that can come and go in waves. There is no right or wrong way to grieve but there are tips and information that can help you process it. Please, if you feel stuck or if your grief is fresh, come be part of this workshop. Sometimes simply knowing you are not alone is healing.
