South Sudan 2015

Blessings to Steph and Angelia!

LifeJourney's Steph Branson and Angelia Wimbley will accompany New Community Project, representing our church's Missions Ministry on a learning tour of South Sudan departing today and returning February 18. They will be visiting Nimule and Naruse, where we support girls' education, a women's co-op program, and reforestation efforts. (In the past, we have also funded a well for a community in memory of Don Hayes, the father of Donna Hayes.)

Paul Pfeiffer from Columbia City, IN; Donna Parcell of Souderton, PA; and David Radcliff, the Director of New Community Project, will be on the tour with Steph and Angelia. David calls this a "small but mighty group!" This is Steph's 2nd trip to South Sudan, Angelia's first.

Last year's scheduled trip to South Sudan was postponed due to unrest, especially around the capital city of Juba. There is still unrest in the northern regions of South Sudan, but the areas closer to the Uganda border (where they will be traveling) are safer. If the unexpected happens, they may have to stay in Uganda and people from those towns meet them there.

Let's pray for a safe and productive trip, for continued progress in South Sudan, and for the people in Nimule and Naruse that we have supported for nearly 8 years.

Soul FOOD POTLUCK

LifeJourney Church Social Hall

Sunday February 22 at 12:45 pm

If you know how, bring a soul food dish. If you don't, bring whatever you like to this annual event celebrating Black History Month.

One-Time Service Opportunity!

We need a crew of six people who will help coordinate and manage our Soul Food Potluck on February 22. If you have a heart of service, and you enjoy working in the kitchen, we need you for this one-time service opportunity! Use the response form on the back of today's bulletin to let us know you are interested.

Position Opening: Head Usher

Jane Adamson, our head usher for the 11:00 service, has stepped down after many years of faithful service. Her kind, welcoming smile and organization will be truly missed.

When one door closes another is opened—now YOU have the opportunity to lead our welcome efforts!

When guests arrive at LifeJourney, it's the Usher/Greeter teams that welcome them. Having a well organized team is crucial to first impressions and service flow.

Do you have a passion for guest relations and the ability to inspire others in the importance of first impressions? Do you have the skills to conduct and organize exceptional teams to serve on the front lines at LifeJourney?

If this is YOU, Pastor Vivian would like to setup a time to discuss this volunteer position's responsibilities and your individual experience/skill sets. Let her know you are interested through the response form in today's bulletin.

In Loving Memory...

A beloved congregant, Tony Melendez, passed away unexpectedly in January. Tony had an amazing spirit, and was a very gifted artist. The banners hanging on the sidewall of the sanctuary were painted by him. His Memorial Service will be here at the Church on February 21 at 2 pm.

Silent Confession

General Confession: God, forgive me for times I have contributed to walls that have kept people away from Christ. I want to be warm and welcoming, not just toward those who are like me, but especially toward those who aren't. Help us to radiate the love of Christ. Strengthen us to share the Good News of Christ far and wide. Amen.

Consecration of the Elements

Proclamation of our Faith: Christ has died, Christ has risen, Christ is here now, and Christ will come again. Alleluia!

Distribution of the Elements

If this is your first time with us: You are welcome to receive Holy Communion. You're also welcome to just observe, if you prefer. You can take Communion alone, or with friends or family.

Ushers will release rows and direct you to a server. The server will offer you the wafer dipped in juice with a prayer. After receiving the elements, return to your seat by the side aisle. If you would like to receive Communion but are unable to come forward, please notify an usher.

Notes

Webcast Reminder: The morning services are recorded for our webcast; crowd shots are included. To improve the quality of those shots, we'd like to fill the center section of seating. If you prefer not to be on camera, just sit in the back half of the left section.

Dayspring Says Thank You for 2014

Here at Dayspring Center we are deeply grateful for every dollar, every canned good and every minute served to create a better life for a homeless family and their children. Together, through our partnership, look at what was accomplished in 2014:

- 755 gallons of milk for our meal program.
- Over 600 new pillows.
- The largest year-end giving amount in our 28-year history!
- The ingredients and time to serve over 38,000 meals.
- Over 1,250 rolls of paper towel used in our busy kitchen and living spaces.
- Thanks to some very special volunteers, the families enjoyed 25 movie nights, 60 holiday parties, over 100 home-cooked dinners and 60 days of recreational activities for the children (swimming, skating, art/crafts, etc.).
- Educational, recreational and social activities throughout the summer for 70+ homeless children.
- Most importantly, providing a place of safety and comfort for 150 families after losing everything!

On behalf of everyone at Dayspring Center, THANK YOU for the outpouring of gifts, donations and volunteer hours in 2014!

Audio Check... One, Two, Three!

Do you embrace technology, or at least don't run the other way? Ever considered how your ear for music could be used in worship? If so, you may be two steps closer to the Media Booth's audio console than you ever expected!

LJC has openings for audio operators, both at experienced and apprentice levels of expertise. The team invites you to open a dialogue to see where your skills can be put to God's (good) use. Request more info through the form below.

New this year...

Every 3rd Sunday bring canned food items to benefit the families of Dayspring Center.

(Place your cans in the brown bin on the Missions wall. Be sure to pickup a list to see other items this ministry needs.)

Want to do more to serve those in need? Join the Homeless Team Ministry each Saturday morning at 8-10 am as they provide breakfast at the Dayspring Center Kitchen. Contact Monica Law scribbledpage@yahoo.com for more information.
